THE WEEK IN SOCIETY.

After the rush and excitement attending the visit of the foreign warships to this port, society has retired into comparative quiet, and on all sides there are signs of preparations for the closing of town houses, though it is the intention of several prominent families to remain in New-York until after the brief visit of the Infanta Eulalic.

While the ball for the Infanta seems to be an established fact, there are yet no definite statements to be made concerning the patronesses and com-It was at one time thought that a ball would be given at the house of a woman prominent in New-York society, but it is said that project had to be abandoned. The British Ambassador and Lady Pauncefote give a ball on the evening of May 24 to celebrate the Queen's birthday, and it is believed that this is so timed that it may also serve as a welcome from the head of the Diplomatic Corps to the Infanta.

The chief entertainments of the week have been In honor of the Grand Duke Alexander of Russia, and the return of hospitalities on board the English warships. On Sunday night Mrs. Paran Stevens gave a brilliant dinner party for the Grand Duke, at her other guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Wilson, Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. John Jacob Astor, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mortimer, Colonel and Mrs. 6. V. R. Cruger, Perry Belmont, and Mrs. Burko Roche. The dinner was followed by a small reception, when Mme. Kate Rolla sang. Among the who came in after dinner were Mr. and Mrs. William Jay, Count von der Goltz, J. Wadsworth Ritchie, Miss Ruth Lawrence, A. Morris Bagby, Luther Kountze, Mrs. George De Ferest, Prince Poniatowski, R. T. Wilson, Jr., and W. Harold Brown.

Those who accepted the invitation to subscribe to the exhibition of "living pictures" shown on Tuesday and Wednesday at the Stevens Mansion, Castle Point, Hoboken, had a rare treat. The weather on both days was delightful. On Tuesday the warships were seen in the distance, and the house, which suggests a home in a foreign land, offered as much of a treat to the stranger as did the beautiful but fleeting The young women of New-Jersey who posed bid fair to wrest the laurels from their New-York sisters who were recently seen in living pictures at the Madison Square Assombly Rooms. pictures were artfully displayed from frames which seemed to be part of the decoration of the great rotunda which is hung with interesting historical portraits of the Stevens family and ancestors o many generations ago. The results of the sale of tickets were most substantial and a satisfactory sum was realized, which will be devoted to the needs of St. Katherine's Home, where the Sisters of St. Margaret care for friendless women and children.

The superstulons of May seem in a measure to have prevented marrying and giving in marriage. Weddings consequently have been few and far be Miss Elizabeth Work Olcott and John Prentiss Erowning were brave enough to throw aside any superstitious scruples, and their wedding on Wednesday was one of the few to chronicle. It took place in the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. The decorations were of pink and white, the distinctive colors of bridesmalds' gowns. Miss Olcott's cousins, Mrs. Burke Roche and Mrs. Cooper Hewitt, were both at the wedding, and at the reception which followed at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. John Clinten Work. Mr. Browning is a grandson of John II. Prentiss, who for years was the owner and Editor of The Freeman's Journal," which was published at Cooperstown, where the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Browning, still live. Many of his mother's relatives have occupied important positions in the legal world and in the United States Senate. Mr. Browning is a lawyer. He was graduated from Princeton University in the class of 1889. He will take his bride to Cooperstown for the summer.

There have been a few announcements of engagements recently. One of the most interesting was that of Miss Louisa A. Johnson, to her stepbrother, Robert C. Townsend. Miss Johnson is a granddaughter of etiquette in placing her in the rooms recently occufortune. Her father, William Johnson, married in New-Orleans Miss Sallie Day, one of the beauties of her day. On his death, his widow married Edward to it from the Infanta herself. I do not know where M. Townsend, of New-York, whose son by his first marriage is now engaged to his stepdaughter. On her mother's side, Miss Johnson is a consin of the Countess di Brazza Savargnan, formerly Miss Cora Slocum, who was married in New-York about six years

Another engagement announced during the week was that of Miss Faith McNamee, eldest daughter of James McNamee, of Grymes Hill, S. I., to Bernard Echout, of Baltimore, formerly of Glasgow, Scotland. Miss McNamee is a granddaughter of Captain Jacob Vanderbilt, and one of the prettiest girls of Staten Island. During the last winter her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James McNamee, have had a house in Nev Mr. Echont's family are Hellanders, who have been living for some years in Glasgow. Their wedding will not take place before another year. The engagement is also announced in Staten Island of Miss Margaret Davenport Alexander, eldest daughter of H. Eugene Alexander, to Henry W. Waterworth, of New-York, Miss Alexander is now in England, but will return to lew-York early next month.

The wedding of Miss Mac Allen Clagett, whose engagement to Augustus Whiting, of New-York, was announced in The Tribune a few weeks ago, will take place in Washington, D. C., on Wednesday of this week. Owing to the recent death of the bride's father, William H. Clagett, there will be no reception. On Tuesday, at Augusta, Ga., Miss Marian Hartridge Dunbar will be married to William Auchinbreck Campbell, of New-York. Miss Dunbar is the eldest daughter of Barney S. Dunbar, of Augusta. up to the time of his death was one wealthiest cotton merchants of the South. She is one of Georgia's belles. Mr. Campbell is the eldest son of Douglas Campbell, the lawyer and historian, who was author of "The Puritan in Holland, England and America." Young Mr. Campbell was graduated from Yale, was the captain of his class crew, and a tennis player of some note. The wedding will take place in the handsome old Dunbar mansion, but owing to the recent death of Mr. Campbell's father will be quiet. Miss Jennie Dunbar will be the maid of Bonor and Douglass Campbell will be his brother's best man. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will spend their honeymoon at Auchinbreck, Cherry Valley, N. Y., the Campbell country place, which Mr. Campbell inherited from his father.

They will live at the Gerlach next winter.

The dance given by the Consul-General of Russia and his wife, Mme. Olarovsky, in honor of the Russian naval officers on Friday night at Sherry's was extremely interesting. The whole atmosphere was decidedly foreign. The guests included besides the Russians many of the leading Greek residents of New-York, the consuls representing various foreign countries, Spaniards, Germans, Italians and South Amer teans. In graceful tribute to the guests of honor, their national colors entwined with the American flag were conspicuous among the decorations. The fag were conspicuous among the decorations. The mazurks, which was danced with great spirit, made the New-York waitz and polka, graceful as they are, almost tame in comparison. The Grand Duke Alex-ander and the Russian officers found the company so agreeable that they remained until the small hours of yesterday morning. Considerable interest is shown in Orange over the outfoor performance of Shakespeare's comedy, "As You Like It," which will be produced on the lawn of Oliver Carter's beautiful country place, Mountain Side, on the afternoon of Monday, May 20, under the supervision of John Malone, the actor, to aid the House of the Good Shepherd, one of the most worthy institutions in Orange. In Mr. Roosevelt's absence Frederic Eronson will be secretary for the club, his old office. It was determined to drive to Luke Hopatcong on Saturday of this week, the regular spring drive, but as the roads are in such a wretched condition, a change will have to be made when Mr. Bronson returns from his country place te-morrow. The entires for the coaching parade are not all in.

A pleasant afternoon reception was given on Thursday by Mrs. Charles T. Alexander, wife of Surgeon-General Alexander, U. S. A., at her house in East Fifty-third-st., for her daughter, Mrs. John J. Emery. She and her husband have just returned from their weeding trip, which included several months' travel in England, the south of France. Spain and Africa. AFLOAT. How to receive and entertain the Infanta Eulalie of Spain in a manner befitting a Princess Royal and yet In accordance with republican institutions is a question which is agitating the minds of the committees which are to provide for her entertainment in this city. Little has been done definitely, as it is not yet known when she will be here, or even if she will come at all. Reports of her illness have served further to delay the preparations. The statement was published yesterday that she did not wish to occupy the state apartments at the Waldorf because they and recently been occupied by the party of the Duke of Verngua, who was her inferior in rank.

A. Cayas, chairman of the committee of the Circulo Colon Cervantes which has charge of the ball which it is proposed to give in her honor, said to a Tribune reporter last evening: "So far as I know, the Infanta has not declined to occupy those apartments, nor do the rules of Court etiquette forbid it. Mayor Gliroy who is chairman of the Committee of One Hundred, told a member of my committee that he intended to engage apartments for the Infanta elsewhere than at the Waldorf, because there might be some breach of apartments have been engaged for her, or that any bave been engaged.

"These stories that the Infanta is prevented by court etiquette from mingling with the people whom she will meet here are all nonsense. Certain questions of precedence have to be observed as on any social occasion. It has been said that she will not dance at the ball given in her honor. That is not true, she will dance with the Spanish Minister first, as the ball is to be given under his auspices, and after-

Mayor Gilroy could not be found at his home last evening or at the sagamore Club. President George B. McClellan, of the Board of Aldermen, who is

B. McClellan, of the Board of Aldermen, who is secretary of the committee of one hundred, said that he did not know that any arrangements had been made by the committee to receive the Infanta or that any apartments had been engaged for her. He had talked the matter over with Mayor Gilroy and in a general way it had been decided to have a committee meet her down the bay. Furthr than this he thought nothing had been done.

George C. Boidt, proprietor of the Waldorf, said last evening that the state apartments there had not been engaged for the party of the Infanta.

All who were seen said that the delay in the preparations had been due to the fact that the wishes of the Infanta were not known, and that the time of her visit here had not been fixed, and not to any lack of nospitality.

Havana, May 13.—The Infanta Enlalla and her husband, Frince Antoine d'Orleans, attended yesterday a delightful garden party given by Captain-General Rodriquez Arfeco, at his summer residence. Los Molinos, in honor of the royal visitors. The party was attended by the officials and by the most prominent people in Havana society. The Infanta and Prince Antoine visited the Asylum Beneficencia Domiciliaria and in the evening attended a performance at the Albizu Theatre.

THE INFANTA EULALIES VISIT HERE.

HOPES THAT HER PLANS MAY BE CARRIED OUT-PREPARATIONS FOR HER RECEPTION.

Washington, May 13.-There is at least a possibility that the Infanta Eulalie of Spain will not visit the United States and attend the World's Columbian Ex-position, at the invitation of the President. She has started on her voyage to these shores, where she was expected to arrive on the 19th inst, and has pro-ceeded as far as Havana, but that she will continue in accordance with the programme originally prepared is not yet decided. The matter was the sublect of a conference to-day between the Secretary of State and Senor Murnaga, the Spanish Minister. latter stated that he had called in consequence of the publication of a telegram from Madrid intimating that he Infanta would abandon her trip to the United States, and he suggested that until more definite information was received none of the arrangements al-ready made for her reception and entertainment should be changed or given up. Senor Muraaga said in further conversation regarding the Infanta plans, that she has a delicate constitution, and that the care of her health was her first consideration.

"Several years ago," Senor Murunga continued, "the Infanta was compelled to go to the baths in the Pyrences, where she remained at intervals for three years, and any undue exertion or excitement is to be avoided. THE NEW-YORK OFFICES.

TAMMANY PREPARED TO WAIT ALL SUMMER-SENATOR M'CLELLAND "TURNED DOWN."

Toward the close of each week for nearly two months there has come the report from Washington that the President was about to make "some big appointments in New-York." The usual statement was sent over the wires resterday, backed by the fact sent over the wires yesterday, backed by the that Washington has been over-run with Anti-Snappers during the last lew days, and that they have filled up most of the remaining pigeon-holes of the Trensury Department devoted to such purposes with their applications and recommendations. As it does not appear that Mr. Cleveland has as yet called for these papers, as is his custom before entering upon the actual business of making appointments, New-York statesmen who have carefully studied the symp-toms were predicting yesterday that Democrats-anxitoms were predicting yesterday that it includes out to serve their country have a long wait still ahead of them. Summer, they say, will probably be well under way before the President is "good and ready." Mr. Croker is believed to take stock in this forecast, as it was reported from East Fourteenth-st, yesterday that he had ordered all Tammany Hall officespekers visiting Washington to wear straw hats. The attitude of Tanmany Hall to Democratic mem bers of the Legislature who failed to support the measures in Albany last winter which were marked by the Wigwam brand is significant, if there be truth in the reports of recent utterances of Mr. Croker. These are to the effect that no members who showed any independence and refused to obey the Murphy Craketsheehan orders thall be re-elected. This purpose was made clear and plain in an interview which the friends of Senator McClelland of West-chester County say that he had with the "Boss" one day last week. Mr. McClelland visited Mr. roker to find out what were his chances for being returned to the Senate this fall. According to a statement current in Anti-Snapper circles Mr. Croker bluntly told his caller that he might consider his areer in the Legislature at an end, and frankly gave him the reason. That was McClefland's opposition to Tammany legislative biffs. McClelland denied this and cited many Tammany measures which have passed the Senale by his vote.

"But what did you do in the matter of the Elm-st.

improvement and sheehan's Buffalo ('sheak') bills !"
Mr. Croker is quotet as asking. McClelland was Senator McClelland has been complaining bitterly of the way the Tammany patronage dispensed in he Croton watershed by Commissioner Daly has been wielded against him in his own county. He accuses Mr. Croker of aiding by this means to secure his recent defeat for chairman or the Westchester Dem-accuses Mr. Croker of niding by this means to secure his recent defeat for chairman of the Westchester Democratle County Committee.

"I supported Croker's bills to the point of subservience during the last session," he said, "but because I opposed the Elm-st, widening bill, which gives the city authorities unprecedented powers in cond-mning real estate, and because I would not vote for the Lieutenant-Governor's schemes for stopping from the people's Mayor of Buffalo his lawful powers I navebeen 'turned down' by orders from the Wigwam."

Mr. McClelland's plan now is to pose as a "Cleveland martyr," hoping by this means to secure balm for his political wounds in the Collectorship of the Port, Mr. McClelland is one of those virtuous anti-Snappers who are deeply shocked at any wrong done by a Snapper to members of the Democratic faction to which he belongs, but he was numoved during the theft of the Legislature two years ago, and by his vote assisted to consummate that unexampled fraud, F. GAMES IN OTHER CITIES.

Baltimore, Mey 13.—Again to-day it was made clear that baseball is uncertain. When the eighth inning opened, Baltimore had ten runs, against five for Washington. Twenty minutes later Washington scored seven additional runs, winning the game. The trouble started in the seventh inning, when Baker, who had pitched a magnificent game, beran to do poorly, and Washington gathered in three runs. In the succeeding inning eight hits were tallied and seven runs resulted. Schmidt relieved Baker in this inning, but three hits and as many runs followed his introduction. Duryca pitched three innings for the visitors, three runs and six hits resulting. He was relieved by Esper. The weather was threatening. Attendance, 3,139. The score:

OBITUARY.

THE REV. DR. R. W. M'ALL. News of the death of the Rev. Dr. Robert W. McAll, the founder of the McAll Mission, in Paris, France, was received in this city yesterday. Dr. McAll was a Congregational clergyman of England. trip to France with his wife, in 1870, he visited the Belville district, of Paris, and became deeply interested in the spiritual welfare of the people there. He knew little French, but made frequent use of the expression: "God loves you-I love you." He distributed religious tracts among the Commun-ists, and his constant labor, with the sweetness of his manner, speedily gained for him the confidence of the people. They asked him to come among them and hold meetings and he answered their requests y going to live among them.

The first hall of the McAll Mission was open Paris soon after his first visit. In the hall the gespel of Christ was preached, hymns were sang and the poor and the wretched were made welcome Sunday-chools were established, and the work grew until similar halls were planted in other parts of Paris and in other cities of France.

Thus for twenty-one years were the labors of Dr. McAll conducted. During that time he accepted no money for the support of himself or his wife, but fived modestly on the income of a small patrimony. All the money collected during these years by the doctor in England, Scotland, France and America went toward the support of the workers in the mis-sion and of the halls where the meetings are held.

The eleemosynary feature of Dr. McAll's work among the French people was recognized by the French Government last year, and Dr. McAll was named with a decoration. During his labors in France, Dr. McAll had gained the perfect confidence of all classes of people with whom he came in contact. His name became familiar throughout the land. In this country, too, his work was well-known. His name Here was founded the American McAll Association. which is an auxiliary to the mission in Paris. Its president is Mrs. Charles H. Farkhurst.

Dr. McAll's constant labors undermined his health He became ill last year and went to England, hoping to regain his strength. Instead of renewing his vigor. however, he grew rapidly worse, and two months ago returned to Parls. On April 25 last he presided at a meeting of the Board of Directors of MeAll Mission. This was his last official act. He died at his home in Paris Thursday, May 11. On the same day a reception was given at the home of Mrs. George Wood, in East Fifty-fourth-st., this city, in honor of Mrs. Le Gny, one of the active workers in the McAll Mission in Paris. The death of Dr. McAll and the reception to Mrs. Le Goy form a strange coincidence.

Dr. McAll was severly-one years old. His wife-u vives him. He had no children. Mrs. McAll was her hisband's devoted assistant, and greatly aided him in his work. her husband's devoted assistant, and greatly aided him in his work.

The Rev. Dr. Edward G. Thurber, pastor of the American Church in Paris, who is at present at the Murray Hill Totel in this city, said of Dr. McAll, is speaking of him last evening:

"He was a man of statesmanlike qualities, a born leader, a sweet spirit, consecrated and unselfish. His loss will be most deeply felt by the missior. He was a genial, warm-hearted man, and had many sincere triends in New-York, as he had elsewhere, wherever he went."
